ORDER

On July 21, 2025, Petitioner filed a counseled application for habeas corpus relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 (ECF No. 1). The Court screened the Petition and it appears that it may be premature, but the Court does not currently have enough information to make that determination. Accordingly, Respondents shall have twenty-one (21) days to file either a motion to dismiss the application or a comprehensive response to said application explaining in writing why the application cannot be adjudicated by a motion to dismiss. 28 U.S.C. § 2243. Any and all exhibits and portions of the record that Respondents rely upon must be filed contemporaneously with the comprehensive response or dispositive motion. Within fourteen (14) days thereafter, Petitioner shall file a reply. The Court will consider whether to hold an evidentiary hearing once briefing is complete.

SO ORDERED, this 21st day of July, 2025.

UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
